BRANDING PART 1

Answer these questions to start the brand excavation process.

What genres or types of voiceover work do you enjoy the most?

The types of VO genres I enjoy the most are audiodrama, commercial, any kind of character work including animation, narration, documentary, audiobook, and explainer/ e-learning, promo.

What's a skill or talent you have that might surprise people?

A skill or talent I have that might surprise people is I can dance really well and I can flag and style my natural hair in really beautiful and creative ways.

If your voice was a character in a movie, who would it be and why?

If my voice was a character in a movie, it would be Penny Proud because she keeps it real, she's warm and empathetic looking out for people she cares about, she's got a surprising edge/power that people don't expect and she's not afraid to take risks in order to grow or help someone she loves, she's smart and witty, she's kind of quirky/sticks out, she's full of life and recognizes the weight of life too, she enjoys having fun, she's conscious and aware of what's happening in the world, she stands on what she believes, her voice does all kinds of gymnastics to convey her feelings

What's one story from your life you're really embarrassed about?

One story from my life that I'm really embarrassed about is cheating on the pre-calculus final my freshman year of college and how I felt so stressed and overwhelmed that I panicked.

What's your guilty pleasure when it comes to media?

My guilty pleasure when it comes to media are YouTube shorts (scrolling through) and listening to NPR radio.

What do you daydream about that you wouldn't want others to know?

Sometimes I daydream about what it would be like to be a mother to children and playing with them and teaching them things and celebrating them and helping them to grow up.
